Moscow, June 21, O. S.

THIS Court has lately received an Expreſs from Conſtantinople, by which they are informed that the Troubles in that Country are not yet appeaſed, though the Grand Signior has put to death above 16000 Rebels ſince he aſcended the Ottoman Throne. This Court, as well as that of Conſtantinople, has received Advice from Perſia, that the Turks had beat the Perſians in a Skirmiſh near Erivan, and had cut off the Head of a Perſian Officer of Diſtinction whom they had taken Priſoner in the Action. The Turks beheaded him as a Repriſal, becauſe the Perſians had done the ſame to a Turkiſh Officer whom they took when they were near Tauris. Notwithſtanding the unſettled Situation of the Affairs of Turkey, this Court is reſolved to ſend a Perſon of Note to compliment the Grand Signior on his Acceſſion to the Throne; for which End Prince Cherbatoff, who was in Spain, is going very ſoon as Envoy Extraordinary to Conſtantinople. Lieutenant General Henning, who has been many Years in Siberia to take Care of the Mines of that Province, is made a Knight of St. Alexander, and is ſoon to return in the ſame Employment to that diſtant Country. M. Lukin, who was a Major of the Preobrazensky Regiment of Guards, is made a Brigadier and Commandant of Riga; and Major Gallenifhoff Kootuſoff, of the ſame Regiment, is alſo made a Brigadier and Commandant of Narva. The 16th Inſtant the Czarina went and incamped near a Place called Carachova, about ſeven Miles from hence, where ſhe ſtaid under her Tents, though we have had very rainy and cold Weather, and returned to Town the 19th in perfect Health.
